Last updated: April 2024

Scottish Fire and Rescue Service (SFRS) is committed to protecting your personal information. The processing of personal data is covered by the General Data Protection Regulation 2018 and Data Protection Act 2018.

This privacy notice explains the information SFRS (“we”) are collecting about you, why we are collecting it and how it will be used.

Process owner: Strategic Planning Performance & Communications

This notice relates to the following categories of data subject:

SFRS Stakeholders, Members of the Public and SFRS Staff

Why are we collecting your information?

We are engaging to provide you with the opportunity to share your views to assist us in making informed decisions about the future of SFRS. We encourage your participation and involvement in our decision-making processes and facilitate open dialogue which will strengthen the voice of communities, our partners, and the public.

To fully analyse the results received, some personal information will be requested to allow us to identify any data trends. Personal data will also be requested to enable a receipt of response or to enable feedback to any queries received.

To gauge your views, a public consultation will be launched, processing will be for a maximum of up to thirteen weeks.

You will be able to submit your views via an online questionnaire, however hard copies can be requested and returned directly to the Public Involvement and Consultation Team (PICT) to ensure confidentiality.

You will be given the opportunity to comment on how we have conducted this consultation exercise. This will provide us with your views on what worked well and what could be improved to help inform future exercises.

We are subject to the provisions of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 and, therefore, we must consider any request made to it under the Act for information relating to responses made to this consultation.

How do we collect the information about you?

We collect the information directly from you when you complete the questionnaire, either via Citizen Space or on the hardcopy paper format which will be input to Citizen Space. Any paper format will be destroyed once the information is to Citizen Space.

What happens if I do not want my information collected?

The provision of certain categories of personal data is optional.

You can still share your views; it may mean that we will be limited in the scope of any detailed analytical reports that are produced. It may also mean we will not be able to acknowledge receipt of your response or to follow up on any queries you may have.

- Email address (optional);
- Organisation, group, or team name;

Legal basis for the processing

Before we process your data, we need a legal basis for doing so. In this case, the basis for processing your personal data is consent. This allows us to determine if our plans are reflective of your expectations so that services can be provided appropriate to your needs.

Our employees are asked to identify themselves as employees to enable the collation of staff specific issues, so that action can be taken as appropriate.

The system collates IP address information. This is intended to assist us in identifying suspicious responses, such as in the case of automated submissions, duplicate submissions or where inappropriate content has been submitted.

Each participant who submits a response in Citizen Space is given a unique ID for that response. This ID is response specific, not user specific, meaning that every response is given an ID not each respondent. This is designed to track and find formal submissions.

Special categories of personal data are requested to determine if our consultation is fair and inclusive and there is a satisfactory level of engagement across protected characteristic groups. The provision of this information is optional. However, if it is provided, you are giving explicit consent for us to use this information.

This is covered under the Data Protection Laws below:

How the information will be used and stored?

Your engagement will be given consideration and assist us in our informed decision-making processes and will be contained in Citizen Space for a period of 6 months with restricted access to designated administrators. For further information in relation to Citizen Space, please view here. For the Citizen Space Privacy Notice, view here.

Any analytical work using your response data will be exported to an Excel spreadsheet and saved to the Strategic Planning, Performance and Communications SharePoint site with restricted access to the team.

Your personal data, such as email address, IP address and unique reference number, will not be saved, as this is not required for analytical purposes.

Who do we share your information with?

By commenting on this consultation, you are agreeing that your comments can be made public in a consultation report that may be published on our website.

We may use your comments within a press release or online (social media or website).

If you are responding as an individual, your responses will remain anonymous; consent may be sought from organisations to share their comments.

For the benefit of SFRS staff, further information about the anonymity of the survey and how information will be used will be included in various communications methods, including SFRS News articles and iHub articles.

Any reports submitted to SFRS management or published on our communication platforms will be entirely anonymous. This includes redacting any identifying personal information within free text responses.

If we have a large volume of responses, we may require external engagement with a third-party contractor to assist with analysis, however data shared would remain anonymous.

How long do we hold your information for?

The information will be collected over a period of nine weeks. It will then be processed for a further four weeks.

Any personal information provided by you will be destroyed within six months of the end of the consultation process. This will ensure we are not keeping any personal data longer than necessary.
